

CultureHouse Salem is looking for creatives, non-profit organizations, and local businesses to participate in collaborative programming for the month of May and June 2022 at our pop-up community space hosted at Old Town Hall. Interested groups should contact us at salem@culturehouse.cc.

We are seeking creatives and organizations to host programs in the following categories:

Vendor markets: Markets may range from a single vendor in the space for a given time or multiple vendors for a larger event

Organized events: Talks/panel discussions, community meetings, book clubs, etc.

If your ideas do not come under the above mentioned categories, please reach out to us and we can talk more about how we can make a space for you at CultureHouse Salem!

Hours available for programming

Wednesday–Thursday: 1pm–6pm

Friday–Saturday: 1pm–8pm

CultureHouse is programming events for the first floor, events to be hosted on the second floor will go through the City of Salem

Details for programming

We will be providing you with a table (54"L x 27"W), chair and space to set up. Please bring any linens or other specific display features you would require.

About CultureHouse Salem

The City of Salem and CultureHouse are partnering to open a three month long community arts and culture pop-up hosted at Old Town Hall in Downtown Salem. CultureHouse Salem will transform the historic structure into a vibrant, connected, and accessible destination that supports local creatives. Learn more about CultureHouse here, and the Old Town Hall here.